

Schools with Total Enrollment Less than 10

A. Student Learning Outcomes	Deficiency (1)	Advice (2)	Regular with Minor Deviations (3)	Regular (4)
Guiding Question: How is the school ensuring all students are learning in Math? (Middle School and Elementary School)	<input type="checkbox"/> School has no evidence to prove student learning in math.	<input type="checkbox"/> N/A	<input type="checkbox"/> School has provided moderate evidence of the use of 1 or more valid and reliable measurements for student learning.	<input type="checkbox"/> School has provided strong evidence of the use of 1 or more well designed measurements for student learning and evidence that data generated from tool is used improve teaching learning.

The information will be submitted within the accreditation platform.

Definitions:

- Moderate - Evidence of a valid and reliable measurement but no evidence on how the measurement tool is used to improve teaching and learning.
- Strong - Evidence of a valid and reliable measurement tool used. The data generated from the tool is used to improve teaching and learning

Achievement includes progress in student learning, growth, and proficiency.

Well Designed Measurement and Well Implemented Measurement Tool Definition:

1. Identify a valid and reliable tool
2. Provide Evidence that tool is well developed
 - a. Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) analyzing data
 - b. Documentation of types of reports that are shared with parents and/or students

The MAST Pilot will not be a tool that can be used this year

TOTAL SCHOOL ENROLLMENT MUST BE 10 OR BELOW

B. Student Learning Outcomes	Deficiency (1)	Advice (2)	Regular with Minor Deviations (3)	Regular (4)
Guiding Question: How is the school ensuring all students are learning in ELA? (Middle School and Elementary School)	<input type="checkbox"/> School has no evidence to prove student learning in Reading/ELA..	<input type="checkbox"/> N/A	<input type="checkbox"/> School has provided moderate evidence of the use of 1 or more valid and reliable measurements for student learning.	<input type="checkbox"/> School has provided strong evidence of the use of 1 or more well designed measurements for student learning and evidence that data generated from tool is used to improve teaching and learning.

The information will be submitted within the accreditation platform.

Definitions:

- Moderate - Evidence of a valid and reliable measurement but no evidence on how the measurement tool is used to improve teaching and learning.
- Strong - Evidence of a valid and reliable measurement tool used. The data generated from the tool is used to improve teaching and learning

Achievement includes progress in student learning, growth, and proficiency.

Well Designed Measurement and Well Implemented Measurement Tool Definition:

3. Identify a valid and reliable tool
4. Provide Evidence that tool is well developed
 - a. Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) analyzing data
 - b. Documentation of types of reports that are shared with parents and/or students

The MAST Pilot will not be a tool that can be used this year
TOTAL SCHOOL ENROLLMENT MUST BE 10 OR BELOW