

PURPOSE: CFR 300.300(b) (4) A parent/guardian or adult student may revoke (withdraw) consent, in writing, for the continued provision of special education and related services (parents are not required to use a specific form for their revocation). If a parent revokes consent in writing, the district must honor the revocation and provide the parent with prior written notice identifying the date the district will stop providing services. The district may not use due process or mediation procedures to challenge the parent's revocation. Beginning the effective date indicated in the prior written notice, the district may no longer provide special education and related services to the child. The district is not required to amend the child's education records to remove references to the child's receipt of special education and related services. Once the revocation is effective, the student is no longer entitled to receive special education or related services, and the district will not be considered in violation of the requirement to make FAPE (a free, appropriate public education) available to your child.

REVOCATION (WITHDRAWAL) OF CONSENT FOR SERVICES

Re: _____ Child

By signing below, I acknowledge that:

1. The district will stop providing special education and related services to my child beginning the date identified in the written notice that will be given to me by the district;
2. The district cannot use dispute resolution options to challenge my right to terminate special education services for my child;
3. The district will no longer be required to conduct reevaluations, convene an IEP team meeting, or develop an IEP for my child;
4. The district will not be considered in violation of the requirement to make a free appropriate public education (FAPE) available to my child;
5. The district is not required to amend my child's education records to remove references to my child's receipt of special education and related services; and
6. My child will be subject to all of the same requirements that apply to general education students, such as academics, statewide and districtwide assessments, extracurricular activities, graduation requirements, discipline, and all other general education requirements.

I revoke my consent for special education and related services to be provided to my child or myself if I am an adult student.
