

RENEÉ

SCHOENING

TUESDAY FEATURED SESSION:

Flourishing in the Face of Secondary Trauma and Burnout

Dr. Renee' Schoening is the Director of School Counseling and Social Emotional Learning Graduate Programs at Whitworth University in Spokane, Washington. She is a fourth generation Montanan who has spent the majority of her career working in Montana schools as a teacher, a therapist providing services through Safe & Drug Free Schools grant programs, and for 16 years as a licensed school counselor. She served as both President and Executive Director of the Montana School Counseling Association and is a former Visiting and Adjunct Professor at the University of Montana. She has extensive experience with Trauma recovery and is currently doing professional development for educators in the Spokane region to promote resilience and wellbeing in the face of secondary trauma and burnout.

