

Save the Date: 2018 National School Security Roundtable

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) invites you to participate in the 2018 National School Security Roundtable on August 1-2, 2018, in Washington, D.C.

During this two-day event, DHS officials will host a series of facilitated discussions with representatives of the K-12 community, law enforcement and emergency services, state and local government, and experts from across the private sector and academia to identify opportunities for the Department to foster security at our nation's schools. The roundtable sessions will focus on three broad categories of discussion including school security operations, DHS programs and policy, and best practices in physical security design and technology insertion.

Event registration will begin no later than Friday, June 22 and will include detailed information on the agenda, venue, and event logistics. We look forward to hosting you for these critical discussions. If you are interested in attending, please fill out our pre-registration page here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SchoolSecurityRT>.

If you need any additional information, please send us an email at AcademicEngagement@hq.dhs.gov.

There is no cost for participants to attend this event. Participants may be responsible for their own travel, lodging, or per diem expenses – details to be provided in the separate event registration form that will be sent by June 22. Space will be limited.
