

14th Annual Indian Education for All Best Practices Conference
Indigenizing Education in Montana
Montana State University - Billings
May 3-5, 2020

Indian Education for All is about learning, growing, and breaking down barriers. Educators at the 14th Annual Indian Education for All Best Practices will have opportunities to see, hear, and experience Indigenization of curriculum in all content areas. Indigenizing education means honoring tribal perspectives and transforming curriculum and classroom practices to include, accept, and elevate the tribal knowledges and experiences, both historic and contemporary, in Montana.

Sunday May 3, 2020

11:30-12:30	Registration Open
12:30-4:30	Mini-Institute A	Indigenizing Science with Dr. Mae Hay
	Mini-Institute B	Science, Data, IEFA, and Grizzly Bears with Montana Teacher of the Year Linda Rost
	Mini-Institute C	Math and IEFA with Brooke Taylor
	Mini-Institute D	Mirrors and Windows: Building Understanding and Empathy with Books with Ruth Ferris and Kathi Hoyt
	Mini-Institute E	Social Studies and IEFA with Jacie Jeffers
	Field Trip	Plenty Coups State Park

Monday, May 4, 2020

8:30-9:15	Breakfast
9:15-10:30	Conference Welcome and Advocacy Award Presentations
10:45-12:00	Breakout sessions
12:00-1:15	Lunchtime Keynote Speaker: Dr. Mae Hey
1:30-2:45	Breakout Sessions
3:00-4:15	Breakout Sessions
4:30-6:00	Cultural Continuum and Celebration at the Montana Audubon Center

Tuesday, May 5, 2020

8:30-9:15	Breakfast
9:15-10:20	Strategies for Indigenizing Education in Montana
10:30-11:15	Breakout sessions
11:30-12:30	Lunchtime Keynote and Performance: Jared Stewart
12:30-12:45	Wrap Up and Depart

