How they are interrelated

COUNTY FORMS

FP-6b – County Treasurer’s Report of Countywide School Funds: County Treasurers certify county receipts and disbursements for public schools (MCA, 20-9-212). County Treasurer submits to County Superintendent by July 10 and to OPI by August 15.

FP-8a – Joint District Basic Data Transmittal Form: This form provides a format for the exchange of information between joint county superintendents in order to determine what percentage of the joint district their county supports (MCA, 20-9-151). Parts I & II of the form are completed by the Non-Located County Superintendent and submitted to the Located County Superintendent by August 6. Part III is completed by the Located County Superintendent and submitted to the Non-Located County Superintendent by August 10. A copy of the report is also provided to the District Clerk by August 10. OPI does not receive a copy of this form.

FP-8b – Joint District Tax Levy Summary: This form provides a summary of the total Joint District tax levy mill requirements and the county tax levy amounts for located and non-located counties (MCA, 20-9-151). Located County Superintendents submit the report to Non-Located County Superintendents by August 20. OPI does not receive a copy of this form.

FP-10A – County Transportation/Retirement Fund Mill Levy Calculation Worksheet: This worksheet is a tool used by County Superintendents to determine the budget and necessary mill levy for the county retirement and county transportation funds (MCA, 20-3-209). The report is due to OPI by the second Monday in September.

FP-9 – Verification of Mills: County Superintendents certify the number of mills actually levied by the commissioners in support of district and county-wide school funds (MCA, 20-3-209). The report is due to OPI by the second Monday in September.
