

Indian Education for All Resources Sent to Schools and Libraries from Montana Office of Public Instruction

For resources published and posted on the Web site by the Montana Office of Public Instruction Resources information is provided on how to locate it. On the OPI Web site scroll over the Programs button and go to Indian Education.

BOOKS - INFORMATIONAL

American Indian Contributions to the World - Buildings, Clothing, and Art , by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2005	All Schools
American Indian Contributions to the World – Food, Farming, and Hunting by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2005	All Schools
American Indian Contributions to the World – Medicine and Health by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2005	All Schools
American Indian Contributions to the World – Science and Technology by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2005	All Schools
American Indian Contributions to the World – Trade, Transportation, and Warfare by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2005	All Schools
American Indian Music: More Than Just Flutes and Drums A Guide to American Indian Music CD - 2008; Guide - by Scott S. Prinzing, M.Ed. Office of Public Instruction, 2009 This guide, put together by music educator Scott Prinzing, provides an overview of different genres of contemporary and traditional American Indian music along with Web site links for further study. Additionally, the CD accompanies this guide as a supplementary classroom resource. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications (guide only)	All Schools
A Broken Flute: The Native Experience in Books for Children, Doris Seale and Beverly Slapin, eds. AltaMira Press and Oyate, 2005 This book deals with the issue of cultural accuracy in books for children and evaluates hundreds of books for children and teenagers published from the early 1900s- 2004.	All Schools

Directory of Indian Education Programs in Montana; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2012, 2010, 2009, 2008 This directory is a comprehensive collection of contact information and resources related to Indians and Indian education in Montana. It is an excellent resource for teachers, administrators, parents, and community members for Indian Education for All and Indian student achievement. There are updated versions on the Web site which have not been sent out to schools. OPI > Indian Education	All Schools
Do All Indians Live in Tipis? Questions and Answers from the National Museum of the American Indian; Collins in Association with the National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution, 2007 This book is a collaborative effort between the Smithsonian Institution and the National Museum of the American Indians. It provides brief explanations to correct some commonly held misconceptions about American Indians. It is written in a “student friendly” format and is an excellent curriculum resource for both teachers and students.	All Schools
Encyclopedia of American Indian Contributions to the World: 15,000 Years of Inventions and Innovations by Emory Dean Keoke and Kay Marie Porterfield; Facts on File, 2003 This meticulously researched volume is a comprehensive resource to the numerous inventions and innovations made by the indigenous peoples of North, Meso-, and South America. It contains over 450 entries which are alphabetically arranged and fully cross-referenced.	All Schools
The Framework: A Practical Guide for Montana Teachers and Administrators Implementing Indian Education for All: Dr. Tammy Elser; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This document outlines a comprehensive approach to high quality implementation of Indian Education for All (IEFA), from the foundation and rationale, the development of a plan, materials selection, to professional development and instructional integration. It focuses on instructional opportunities presented by IEFA and connects sound theory to practice. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications	District Superintendents
History and Foundation of American Indian Education, Stan Juneau with revisions and updates by Walter Fleming and Lance Foster; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2013 This publication covers the larger historical trends in federal Indian policy and the subsequent impacts upon Indian education. It is arranged in a general developmental and historical sequence which is grouped into thematic	All Schools

chapters. A chronology of important dates in Indian education is listed in Appendix One. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications
A History of the Cheyenne People, by Tom Weist; Council for Indian Education, 1977, 2003 Edition The history of the Cheyenne people for over three centuries up to the late 1970s.	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
A Kid's Guide to Native American History, by Yvonne Wakim Dennis and Arlene Hirschfelder; Chicago Review Press, 2009 This book features more than 50 tribally specific, hands-on activities, games, and crafts that explore the diversity of Native American cultures and teach children about people, experiences, and events that have shaped our country's history.	Elementary Schools (grades K-5)
Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks Background Information on Issues of Concern for Montana: Plains Bison Ecology, Management, and Conservation by Stephanie Adams and Arnold Dood; Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks, 2011 This publication can be used in conjunction with the Fort Peck PlaceNames unit.	High Schools
Montana Indians: Their History and Location; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2006 This publication contains information about each Indian reservation located in Montana along with information regarding the Little Shell Tribe and urban Indians. It includes both historical and contemporary information. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications	All Schools
Native America in the Twentieth Century, An Encyclopedia, edited by Mary B. Davis; Garland Publishing, 1996 The emphasis of this book is on Indian peoples today.	All schools
A Native American Thought of It: Amazing Inventions and Innovations by Rocky Landon and David MacDonald; Annick Press, 2008 This book includes both historical and contemporary images of American Indian peoples and tribal nations and their respective innovations. Topics include various types of shelters, hunting tools/methods, food, clothing, medicine, and communication.	Elementary Schools Middle/Junior High Schools

Native North American Almanac: A Reference Work of Native North Americans in the United States and Canada, Second Edition, edited by Duane Champagne; Gale Group, 2001 Comprehensive volume which provides historical and contemporary information about the Native peoples of North America. It includes a broad range of topics, including history and historical landmarks, health, law and legislation, activism, environment, urbanization, education, economy, languages, arts, literatures, media, and gender relations.	All Schools
A Process Guide for Realizing Indian Education for All: Lessons Learned from Lewis & Clark Elementary School, by Phyllis Ngai and Karen Allen; Phyllis Ngai, 2007 This guide presents insights gained from Lewis & Clark (Missoula) Elementary’s two-year process of implementing Indian Education for All. Topics include: Integrating Indian Education as a Form of Place-based Multicultural Education; Securing School-based Commitment and Teamwork; and Partnering with Indian People; Intercultural Communication – Essence of Indian/non-Indian Partnerships and Supporting Teachers to Cross Over the Tipping Point. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications	All Schools

BOOKS - STORY

How a Young Brave Survived told by Adeline Mathias; Salish Kootenai College Press, 1986 This story is about the experience of a Kootenai youth during the 18th century.	Middle/Junior High School
Indian Reading Series created in 1972 by the Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory in conjunction with 12 Northwest tribal groups. Copyrights are held by the tribes/culture committees themselves. Assiniboine: How the Morning and Evening Stars Came to Be and Other Assiniboine Indian Stories, cover illustrated by Lisa Ventura; 1978 How the Summer Season Came and Other Assiniboine Indian Stories; 1978 Montana Historical Society Press in cooperation with the Fort Peck Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes and Fort Belknap Tribes, 2003	Elementary Schools

Blackfeet

The Blacktail Dance, 1978

A Little Boy's Big Moment, 1977

Pat Learns About Wild Peppermint, 1978

by Joan Kennerly, Carmen Marceau, Doris Old Person, June Tatsey,
Illustrated by Melvin Tailfeathers

The Lone Pine Tree & Lodge Journey

Napi's Journey

by Carmen Marceau, Doris Old Person, June Tatsey, Patricia Tatsey Bachaun,
Illustrated by Melvin Tailfeathers, 1978

Napi and the Bullberries by Joan Kennerly, Carmen Marceau, Doris Old
Person, June Tatsey, Illustrated by Robert Tailfeathers, 1978

Old Man Napi by Joan Kennerly, Carmen Marceau, Doris Old Person, June
Tatsey, Illustrated by M. Cutfinger, 1978

School & Helpers illustrated by Vernon (Chuck) No Runner (School) and Melvin Tailfeathers (Helpers), 1977

The Skull Story & Ghost Woman by Carmen Marceau, June Tatsey, Patricia
Tatsey Bachaun, Illustrated by Melvin Tailfeathers, 1978

Warrior People by Carmen Marceau, Doris Old Person, June Tatsey, Patricia
Tatsey Bachaun, Illustrated by Mike Swims Under, 1978

The Wild Buffalo Ride by Joan Kennerly, Carmen Marceau, Doris Old Person,
June Tatsey, Illustrated by Peter (Rusty) Tatsey, 1978

Reprinted by the Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009

Crow:

Far Out, a Rodeo Horse & End of Summer, cover illustration by Henry Real
Bird, 1978

Grandma Rides in the Parade, cover illustration by Audrey Tomeeta, 1978

I am a Rock & My Name is POP, cover illustration by Henry Real Bird, 1978

Santa Claus Comes to the Reservation cover illustration by Henry Real Bird, 1977

Tepee, Sun and Time written and illustrated by Henry Real Bird, 1978

Water Story & Birds and People cover illustration by Henry Real Bird, 1978

Reprinted by the Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009

Northern Cheyenne:

The Bear Teepee told by Julie Pine and illustrated by Donna Livingston, 1977

Insects Off to War & The Bob-Tailed Coyote illustrated by Dale Brady, 1977

Little Ghost Bull & The Story of Firemaker by LeRoy Pine (Little Ghost) and told by Julie Pine (Firemaker) and illustrated by Donna Livingston, 1978

Philene and Buttons illustration produced from photograph by Susan Stratman, 1977

Reprinted by the Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009

Salish/Kootenai/Pend d' Oreille (culture committees):

The Buffalo of the Flatheads (Salish), told by Pete Beaverhead, Eneas Pierre, Louise Vanderburg, Agnes Vanderburg, Illustrated by Dwight BilleDeaux, 1981

Coyote and the Man Who Sits on Top (Salish), told by Johnny Arlee and illustrated by Tony Sandoval, 1978

Coyote and the Mean Mountain Sheep (Salish) told by Johnny Arlee and illustrated by Tony Sandoval, 1978

Reprinted by the Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009

Coyote Stories of the Montana Salish Indians, developed by the Salish Culture Committee, cover illustrated by Tony Sandoval; 1981, 1999

How Marten Got His Spots and Other Kootenai Indian Stories, developed by the Kootenai Culture Committee; 2000

Mary Quequesah's Love Story: A Pend d'Oreille Indian Tale, told by Pete Beaverhead; 1981, 2000

Owl's Eyes and Seeking a Spirit: Kootenai Indian Stories, developed by the Kootenai Culture Committee, cover illustration by Debbie Joseph Finley; 1981, 2000 Salish Kootenai College Press and the Montana Historical Society Press Sioux: The Turtle Who Went to War and other Sioux Stories; Montana Historical Society Press in cooperation with the Fort Peck Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes, 1978, 2003
Story of Grizzly Bear Looking Up, illustrated by Antoine Sandoval; Npustin Press, 2008 The story of a young Salish boy who survived the 1780's smallpox epidemic and later became a tribal leader.	Elementary Schools

MODEL LESSONS/UNIT PLANS, TEACHING GUIDES, & CURRICULUMS

Arlee Public Schools K-12 Literature Units; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2008 The literature units, developed by staff from the Arlee Public Schools, provide seventeen K-12 units that are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians, the Montana Performance and Content Standards, as well as Dr. James Bank's Levels of Integration of Multicultural Content. The units focus on books written by Sherman Alexie, James Welch, Joy Harjo, and several other Native authors. Additional resources are provided throughout the project to enhance each unit.	All Schools
Birthright: Born to Poetry, compiled by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2012. This volume of 32 poems written by ten Montana Indian poets are presented with tips for understanding; themes; topics; notes from the poets; discussion, research and writing suggestions; and photos and brief bios of the poets. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (select Language Arts)	High Schools
Bringing the Story of the Cheyenne People to the Children of Today Northern Cheyenne Social Studies Units, Northern Cheyenne Curriculum Committee; Montana Office of Public Instruction 2006 K-12 social studies units focusing on the Northern Cheyenne Tribe. This document was created by the Northern Cheyenne Curriculum Committee	All Schools

through and Indian Education for All grant to the Lame Deer Public Schools. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (select Social Studies)
Bull Trout's Gift, Field Journal, and Explore the River DVD by the Confederated Salish & Kootenai Tribes, 2011 This is a three-part, integrated multimedia curriculum framed by the cultural values of the Salish and Pend d'Oreille people. The parts focus on the bull trout, its habitat needs, and its historic relationship with the Salish, Kootenai, and Pend d'Oreille people, as well as the tribes' restoration and management efforts. This unit supports the integration of Indian Education for All in Montana content standards in science, social studies, and language arts.	Middle/Junior High Schools
Connecting Cultures and Classrooms: K-12 Curriculum Guide for Language Arts, Science, and Social Studies, developed by Sandra J. Fox, Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2006 This guide provides background information, ideas for classroom lessons, and native based literature. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Cross-Curricular)	All Schools
Fort Peck PlaceNames: Building Worldviews Using Traditional Cultures; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2014 This resource guide and DVD is the story of the Assiniboine and Sioux tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation in Montana. Tribal members share their worldviews, histories, and current issues through the more than two dozen short Native Voice videos that are embedded throughout the unit providing a primary source perspective on the issues studied in the unit. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications	High Schools
Language Arts Model Teaching Units
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Secondary Level for American Indian Stories by Zitkala-Sa Gertrude (Simmons) Bonnin by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. It provides a detailed guide for studying the book, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and a bibliography. Book also provided (to middle school grades also).	High School

OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Grades 4-8 for Larry Loyie’s As Long As the Rivers Flow by Tammy Elser; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2011 This language arts unit was developed to go with the book that tells the story of Larry Loyie’s final summer with his family before he and his sibling were required to leave for St. Bernard Indian Residential School located in Alberta, Canada.	Elementary Schools Middle/Junior High Schools
OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Grades 5-8 Text-based Inquiry Unit, Grades 5-8 for Louise Erdrich’s The Birchbark House, developed by Tammy Elser; Montana Office of Public Instruction 2012 This unit is designed to teach the essential understandings about Montana tribes with an emphasis on the Anishinabe (Chippewa or Ojibwa). Book also provided (4th-8th grades).	Middle/Junior High Schools
OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Middle School Level for Joseph Bruchac’s Code Talker: A Novel About the Navajo Marines of World War Two, by Justine Jam; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings and Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. It provides a detailed guide for studying the book and includes reading, writing, and speaking activities along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and a bibliography. Book also provided.	Middle/Junior High Schools
OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Middle School Level for Joe Medicine Crow’s: Counting Coup: Becoming a Crow Chief on the Reservation and Beyond by Megkian Doyle, Dorothea Susag, and Shane Doyle; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings and Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. It provides a detailed guide for studying the book and includes reading,	Middle/Junior High Schools

writing, and speaking activities along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and a bibliography. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Model Teaching Units Language Arts – Elementary Level Volume I; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010; 2013 Includes units for: The Little Duck Sikihsis by Beth Cuthand, The Good Luck Cat by Joy Harjo, Jingle Dancer by Cynthia Leitich Smith, The Moccasins by Earl Einarson, and Red Parka Mary by Peter Eyvindson. These literature units are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. The 2013 edition has been updated to provide information regarding alignment with the Montana Common Core Language Arts Standards: English Language Arts in Literacy in history/social studies, science, and technical subjects. Books also provided (grades K-4). OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	Elementary Schools
Model Teaching Units Language Arts – Elementary Level Volume II; Montana Office of Public Instruction 2010, 2013 Includes units for: Where Did You Get Your Moccasins? by Bernelda Wheeler, The Gift of the Bitterroot as told by Johnny Arlee and Antoine Sandoval, Beaver Steals Fire: A Salish Coyote Story by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, and The War Shirt by Bently Spang. These literature units are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. The 2013 edition has been updated to provide information regarding alignment with the Montana Common Core Language Arts Standards: English Language Arts in Literacy in history/social studies, science, and technical subjects.	Elementary Schools Middle/Junior High Schools

Books provided also (grades K-4), except The War Shirt. One copy of Beaver Steals Fire was provided per elementary district. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)
Fools Crow by James Welch Model Teaching Unit English Language Arts Secondary Level with Montana Common Core Standards by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010, 2014 This literature unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. Book also provided. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	High Schools
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Grade 4 for Jim Thorpe’s Bright Path Tammy Elser; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This unit will help students learn to analyze primary source documents within this interdisciplinary study unit. Book also provided. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	Elementary Schools with grades 4 and up
Killing Custer: The Battle of the Little Bighorn and the Fate of the Plains Indians by James Welch Model Teaching Unit English Language Arts, Social Studies, Media Literacy Middle and Secondary Level with Montana Common Core Standards by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010, 2014 This literature unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. Book also provided. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	High School

Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Middle School Level for Marlene Carvell’s Sweetgrass Basket by Michael Munson-Lenz and Debra Westrom; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This literature unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The unit provides a detailed guide for studying the book, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and a bibliography. Book also provided. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	Middle/Junior High School
Two Old Women: An Alaska Legend of Betrayal, Courage and Survival by Velma Wallis Model Teaching Unit English Language Arts, Middle and Secondary Level with Montana Common Core Standards, by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010, 2014 This literature unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. Book also provided (to middle school grades also). OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	High School
Model Teaching Unit Language Arts – Secondary Level for D’Arcy McNickle’s Wind From an Enemy Sky by Dorothea Susag; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This literature unit is aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Content Standards in reading, writing, literature, speaking/listening, and social studies. The units provide detailed guides for studying the books, along with teacher tips, assessment tools, and bibliographies. Book also provided. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Language Arts)	High Schools

Mathematics Model Teaching Units
Model Teaching Units Mathematics - Grades K-6; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 These units were developed by Montana educators and the Office of Public Instruction. They are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Performance and Content Standards. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Math)	Elementary Schools
Model Teaching Units Mathematics - Grades 7-12, Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 These mathematics units are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Performance and Content Standards in math. The units provide detailed learning plans along with understandings, essential questions, what students will be able to do and what students will know at the end of the unit. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Math – individual lessons)	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Place Names Curriculum: Building Worldviews Using Traditional Cultures and Google Earth, developed in conjunction with Hellgate Elementary School's Ready-to-Go grant; Spatialsci, 2008 This unit includes a teacher's guide, student journal, PlaceNames CD, Google Earth tutorial, Seasons of the Salish/Pend d'Oreille DVD (c. CSKT) and a Salish-Pend d'Oreille calendar (c. Salish-Pend d'Oreille Culture Committee). The focus of the project is to build cross-cultural relationships between traditional Bitterroot Salish and Pend d'Oreille world views and science using Google Earth and tribal cultures. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources > Additional Curriculum Resources and Links > Science	Middle/Junior High Schools
Social Studies Model Lesson Plans
Model Lesson Plans Social Studies Grades K-6 Grades 7-8 High School Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2008 These model lessons are aligned with the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Social Studies Standards. They were created by educators across the state. Each section was sent to the appropriate age-level schools.	All Schools

OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Social Studies)
Science Model Teaching Units
Model Teaching Units Science Units – K-8; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 These units are aligned to the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and the Montana Performance and Content Standards in science. They provide detailed learning plans along with understandings, essential questions, what students will be able to do, and what students will know at the end of the unit. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Science)	Elementary Middle/Junior High Schools

Traditional Games Units, developed by The International Traditional Games Society; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009 This contains 11 model lessons aligned with the Montana Health Enhancement Performance and Content Standards and the Essential Understandings regarding Montana Indian and offers activities for kindergarten through Grade 10. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Health Enhancement)	All Schools
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

TRIBAL HISTORIES

The Apsaalooke (Crow Indians) of Montana A Tribal Histories Teacher’s Guide, Phenocia Bauerle, Cindy Bell, Luella Brien, Carrie McCleary, Timothy McCleary, and Hubert B. Two Leggins; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 www.lbhc.edu > Library > Crow Resources > Tribal Histories Project	All Schools
Challenge to Survive History of the Salish Tribes of the Flathead Indian Reservation a. Unit I Pre-1800 From Time Immemorial: Traditional Life b. Unit II 1800 – 1840 Three Eagles and Grizzly Bear Looking Up Period c. Unit III 1840 – 1870 Victor and Alexander Period d. The Lower Flathead River Flathead Indian Reservation a. Unit IV 1870 – 1910 Charlo and Michel Period - 2011 Salish Kootenai College, 2008	All Schools

These provide brief explanations to correct some commonly held misconceptions about American Indians. It is written in a “student friendly” format and is an excellent curriculum resource for both teachers and students.
Days of the Blackfeet A Historical Overview of the Blackfeet Tribe for K-12 Teachers (Book, DVD, and five posters) by Carol Murray, Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 Provides accurate tribal history of the Blackfeet Tribe. Funding for this project came from the Montana Legislature in 2005 with appropriation of funds to tribal colleges to write their own tribal history to assist in the implementation of Indian Education for All.	All Schools
The History of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, Montana 1800-2000, by David Miller, Dennis Smith, Joseph R. McGeshick, James Shanley, and Caleb Shields; Fort Peck Community College and the Montana Historical Society, 2008 The History of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation, 1600-2012, by David Miller, Dennis Smith, Joseph McGeshick, James Shanley, and Caleb Shields; Fort Peck Community College, 2012 Provides accurate tribal history of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation.	All Schools High Schools
We, the Northern Cheyenne People Our Land, Our History, Our Culture; Chief Dull Knife College, 2008 Tribal history of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe.	All Schools
Montana Tribal Histories Educators Resource Guide and Companion DVD, developed by Julie Cajune; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2011 This document incorporates information about Montana tribes into social studies and language arts instruction. It chronologically follows federal policy periods through their impact on tribes and is designed to accompany and supplement the tribal histories that have been developed by the tribal colleges and provided to K-12 districts in the state. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Cross Curricular)	All Schools
“The Whole County was... ‘One Robe’” The Little Shell Tribe’s America, Nicholas C.P. Vrooman; Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians of Montana and Drumlummon Institute, 2012 This is the story of the Little Shell, a métis or hybrid society with a specific historical legacy that came about in the meeting of American Indian and EuroAmerican cultures, and is present in Montana today.	All Schools

CDs/DVDs (and related Guides)

Assiniboine Chief Rosebud Remembers Lewis and Clark, Valley County Historical Society, 2004 In the spring of 1805, the Lewis and Clark Expedition spent 29 days traveling through Assiniboine (Nakoda) hunting territory. They noted many signs of the people that lived on those upper Missouri plains, but made no effort to reach them. The expedition, however, was being watched by the Nakoda. This is the story from that camp.	All Schools
Before There Were Parks Yellowstone and Glacier Through Native Eyes; KUSM-TV, 2009 This DVD, narrated by N. Scott Momaday, is filmed across four seasons in both Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks. It visits with two programs reconnecting Native children to their heritage and listens to fourteen Native leaders as they introduce the view that America's national parks are a significant connection to this land's profound indigenous past.	High Schools
Facing the Storm Story of the American Bison; High Plains Films, 2011 This is a comprehensive documentary on the iconic American bison and its history in the American wilderness. Using archival materials and interviews with scientist, ranchers, animal rights activists, and state governors, the filmmakers tell the story of the eradication of approximately 30 million buffalo from the Great Plains areas in less than 50 years.	High Schools
Finding Common Ground Guiding Growth on the Flathead Indian Reservation; Confederated Salish & Kootenai Tribes, 2007 This DVD focuses on concepts such as treaty, reservation, map application, population growth, government, current issues, and community collaboration. The second disc contains a teacher's education guide which has been aligned with the Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians and focuses on ten specific topics.	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Fire on the Land, Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, 2010 This multi-media curriculum resource is a product of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes and is based on the two-DVD set entitled Native Peoples and Fire in the Northern Rockies, which was sent to all libraries in 2007.	Middle/Junior High School
Fire on the Land/Beaver Steals Fire, Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, 2005 Fire on the Land is an interactive DVD that includes information on Salish tribal history, the history of Salish fire use, fire ecology, fire management activities on the Flathead Indian Reservation, and other resources on the topic of Indian fire use. Beaver Steals Fire is a DVD of an ancient tale of the Salish people which "teaches both respect for fire and awareness of its significance."	All Schools

Heart of the Bitterroot, Voices of Salish & Pend d'Oreille Women, Npustin, 2007 This CD and guide tells the stories of four Salish and Pend d'Oreille women through stories, music, and poetry.	All Schools
In the Land of the Assiniboine; Valley County Historical Society, 2009 This DVD features over 60 Fort Peck and Fort Belknap Assiniboine tribal members sharing their stories and perspectives.	High Schools
Indian Relay; Dye Works, LLC & KUSM-TV/MontanaPBS, 2013 This DVD, developed by Dye Works Film in conjunction with Montana PBS, presents the stories of three Indian relay teams in their quest for the Indian Relay National Championship. Educational guides for this may be viewed at http://www.montanapbs.org/IndianRelay/.	High Schools
Inside Anna's Classroom Classroom Welcome to Anna's classroom. Inside an English classroom in Arlee, Montana on the Flathead Indian Reservation, Indian and non-Indian students enter the world of Bull in the novel Wind from an Enemy Sky. Through a fictional tribe, author D'Arcy McNickle weaves a story of loss and survival that mirrors the history of the Salish, Pend d'Oreille, and Kootenai Tribes. This DVD resource is focused more for teacher/administrative audiences as it provides a current example of IEFA classroom implementation. An educator's study guide developed by CAIPAR is included.	High Schools
Last Stand at Little Big Horn Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse Battle Custer, written by James Welch and Paul Stekler; WBGH Educational Foundation, 2004 Using journals, oral accounts, and Indian ledger drawings as well as archival and feature films, Native American writer James Welch and white filmmaker Paul Stekler combine talents to examine this watershed moment from multiple viewpoints; those of the Lakota Sioux, Cheyenne, and Crow who lived on the Great Plains for generations and those of white settlers and businessmen who pushed west across the continent. For an accompanying resource, see the Model Teaching Unit for secondary level language arts of James Welch's Killing Custer: The Battle of the Little Bighorn and the Fate of the Plains Indians.	High Schools
Long Ago in Montana, Regional Learning Project, DVD and Guide: Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2006 and 2010 Introduces viewers to how people lived before modern conveniences. Topics include food and water, shelter, staying warm, transportation, money (currency), and communication in the context of the "natural community."	All Schools

OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Videos
Montana Skies Blackfeet Astronomy; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2011 Montana Skies Crow Astronomy; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2011 These incorporate ethno-astronomy with an accompanying teacher’s guide to assist in integrating Indian Education for All in science, social studies and art. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Science)	Elementary Schools
Native Peoples and Fire in the Northern Rockies, Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, 2005 This set includes Fire on the Land, an interactive educational DVD that includes information on Salish tribal history, the history of Salish fire use, fire ecology, fire management activities on the Flathead Indian Reservation, and other resources on the topic of Indian fire use. It also includes Beaver Steals Fire, a Salish Coyote Story	All Schools
Oceti Sakowin: The People of the Seven Council Fires and Bridging the Gap: Native American Education; South Dakota Pubic Broadcasting, 2008 This DVD provides a brief introduction to and history of the tribes of South Dakota and their traditional ways of life. Bridging the Gap presents some of the major challenges in educating Indian students as well as attempts to address these challenges. These programs are told from the perspective of Native Americans and almost all commentators and all sources are Native American residents of South Dakota.	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Playing for the World, The 1904 Fort Shaw Indian Boarding School Girls Basketball Team: Produced by John Twiggs; KUFM-TV Montana PBS/The University of Montana, 2009 DVD Study Guide Playing for the World The 1904 Fort Shaw Indian Boarding School Girls Basketball Team: Dorothea M. Susag, Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2012 This DVD tells the story of how young American Indian women at the Fort Shaw boarding school became world champions in the newly created sport of basketball at the 1904 World’s Fair in Chicago. The study guide includes discussion and writing activities for social studies, language arts, and media literacy for 6th – 12th grades. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > IEFA Curriculum Resources (Cross-Curricular – guide only)	High Schools

Redefined Art and Identity Inside the Mind of the Modern American Indian Artist; Center for American Indian Policy and Applied Research, 2012 American Indian writers and visual artists talk about art and identity. At times, Native artists and writers are expected to produce something that is characteristically “Indian.” In these interviews, people share honest, brave, and insightful ideas about their art and their identity. This DVD resource can be used with both students and staff to help expand perspectives regarding American Indian artists and their art.	High Schools
Remembering the Songs music traditions from the Zuni, Navajo, and Salish; Heartlines, 2011 This is a multi-media project that explores the music traditions of the Salish, Diné, and Zuni people. While geographically and culturally diverse, these three communities share the traditional use of the flute. Playing and making traditional flutes is becoming an endangered art in Indian Country. Complementing the music from the Salish, Diné, and Zuni, is the story of master Diné artist, Paul Thompson, who builds and plays traditional flutes. Through film, audio, and story, Remembering the Songs shares music traditions and personal stories from three diverse Indian communities.	High Schools
The Return; High Plains Films, 2012 This DVD details what leads up to the return of the bison to the Fort Peck Indian Reservation.	High Schools
Science: Through Native American Eyes; Cradleboard Teaching Project, 1998 This is an interactive multimedia CD Rom for Grades 5 to adult. It is a core curriculum in a Native American perspective.	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Seasons of the Salish/Pend d’Oreille; Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes, 2007 Tells what the Salish/Pend d’Oreille and Kootenai Tribes did during each season of the year. High Schools and Middle/ Junior High Schools received this in the PlaceNames curriculum.	Elementary Schools
Stories From a Nation Within: A four-part film series, by Daniel Decker; Heartlines, 2011 Among all the ethnic minorities in the United States, American Indian tribes alone exist as “nations within a nation,” engaged in self-governance on a daily basis within a legal and political land base. Through the history of the Salish, Pend d’Oreille, and Kootenai tribes, Dan Decker, Esq., provides poignant stories of Indian people and tribal nations as active forces throughout history. These films are intended to convey the fundamental information to support basic understandings of American Indian tribes as sovereign nations from time immemorial to today.	High School

The Story of the Bitterroot; Looking Glass Films, 2004: Lesson Plan for: The Story of the Bitterroot; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2007 The DVD tells how important the natural world is to Native American cultures. Specifically, the bitterroot plant is used to demonstrate the link between the natural world and Salish tribal culture, past, present, and future. The Salish tribal perspective on the Lewis & Clark expedition is also presented. The lesson plan presents goals, themes, questions and answers, activities, and vocabulary for each section of the DVD. It is geared to the 8th grade. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Publications	All Schools
Talking Without Words (DVD); Regional Learning Project and Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2006 Talking Without Words Teacher Guide – Suggested for 6th Grade; Regional Learning Project and Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009 This DVD talks about the challenges people face when communicating with people who speak another language. Its focus is on ways native peoples of Montana communicated with each other and with non-Indians. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Videos	All Schools
Tribal Nations and Guide: The Story of Federal Indian Law; Tanan Chiefs Conference, 2006 This documentary DVD is an illustrated introductory history of how Federal Indian Law developed in the United States and the impacts federal policies have had on American Indian and Alaska Native people.	High Schools
Tribes of Montana and How They Got Their Names (DVD); Regional Learning Project and Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2006 Tribes of Montana and How They Got Their Names Teacher Guide – Suggested for 4th Grade; Regional Learning Project and Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2010 This talks about the tribes of Montana, where they used to live and where they live now, and the names the tribes call themselves. It also discusses the miscommunication errors that occur through translation of sign language. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Videos	All Schools
Two Worlds at Two-Medicine; Going-to-the-Sun Institute and Native View Pictures, 2004	High Schools

In the summer of 1806 while the Lewis and Clark Expedition was heading home from the Pacific Ocean, Meriwether Lewis had a life-or-death encounter with a party of Blackfeet. This is the story of that encounter as told by American Indian elders, educators, and cultural historians.
View from the Shore; Black Dog Films DVD of Native American perspectives on Lewis and Clark. OPI > Indian Education > Indian Education for All > Background Resources > Videos	All Schools

POSTERS

Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2008	All Schools, All Teachers
honor your Self; Montana Office of Public Instruction, 2009 This series of 25 posters features American Indian role models representing all tribal nations in Montana, living both in urban areas and on reservations, all nominated by their communities' tribal elders and leaders, and representing a broad spectrum of experiences, colleges, careers, and paths to success. OPI > Indian Education	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Montana reservations/traditional American Indian foods; Full Circle, 2007 One side of this poster highlights Montana Indian reservations (also includes the Little Shell) and has demographic information for each of the Tribal Nations. The other side highlights traditional American Indian foods along with recipes.	Middle/Junior High Schools High Schools
Tribal Territories in Montana Wall Map: USGS base map adapted by The University of Montana Regional Learning Project, 2009 This map includes current reservation boundaries with capitals for the Montana tribal nations and traditional territory boundaries as defined by the 1851 Fort Laramie Treaty and the 1855 Flathead and Blackfeet treaties, with a key showing the names tribes call themselves.	High Schools