

MAST SCIENCE ASSESSMENT GENERAL FRAMEWORK

Flexibly Aligned Testlets to School Scope and Sequence

The draft assessment framework provides an example of how the content standards may be organized across districts. The model is iterative and will continue to evolve based on feedback and data. Schools will have the flexibility to select testlets during each administration window that align with their local instructional sequence.