ARM Chapter 55 Update

Summary:
In September 2020, the Montana Board of Public Education agreed to open the rules for recommend changes to ARM 10, Chapter 55: Accreditation Standards. Starting in September 2020 to December 2021, the OPI researched the needs of our schools and how to better serve our students through updates to our accreditation standards. An advisory task force to the Superintendent began reviewing rules for crucial changes beginning January 11, 2022, and concluded their recommendations May 19, 2022. Proposed changes to the accreditation standards require that the State Superintendent establish an independent negotiated rulemaking committee (“Committee”) under § 20-7-101, MCA. Thus, State Superintendent Arntzen selected 21 members to serve on that Committee in accordance with § 20-7-101(2), MCA. The Committee began on February 24, 2022 and finished on July 15, 2022. Detailed information about the members of the Committee, agendas, meeting minutes, and recordings can be found on the OPI website here.

Economic Impact Statement:
As required by § 20-7-101(1), MCA, the Montana Superintendent of Public Instruction, prepared an economic impact statement in consultation with the NRC under the provisions of § 2-4-405, MCA.

The Negotiated Rulemaking Committee (NRC), through consensus, determined that 14 rules should be surveyed, and the Superintendent determined that an additional rule should also be surveyed for a total of 15 rules. Between June 20, 2022, and July 21, 2022, the OPI distributed three questionnaires to survey school personnel and stakeholders about the probability of economic impact due to 15 rule changes. Each survey questionnaire was emailed to 20,321 recipients through the OPI government delivery email system.

- On the first survey there were 652 respondents.
- On the second survey there were 128 respondents.
- On the third survey there were 277 respondents.

Even though the survey participants responses show that responders perceived that ARM 10.55.601(3), ARM 10.55.603(3), ARM 10.55.710, ARM 10.55.712, ARM 10.55.723, and ARM 10.55.803(1)(d), may have an economic impact, the responses show no indication that the proposed rule changes would create a significant economic impact for districts and their schools.
It is important to note that the proposed rule changes for 10.55.601(3) would require local school districts to create and submit an integrated action plan and continue to implement a mentorship and induction program (10.55.723) that currently is outlined as a policy under 10.55.701.

Within 10.55.603(3), the proposed rule expanded the requirement for districts to assess student attainment of content standards from assessment results pursuant to ARM 10.56.101 to multiple measures, which provides more opportunities and ways for schools to measure student proficiency of content standards. Thus, the decision regarding how many resources, fiscal or otherwise, to allocate toward these above rules is left to the discretion of local school trustees.

ARM 10.55.710 expanded those who can support the school counseling program that is required to have a licensed school counselor. However, school counselor ratios were not included. The NRC did not reach consensus on this rule. The Superintendent of Public Instruction directed the inclusion on the economic impact survey. The responses show no indication that the proposed rule changes would create a significant economic impact for districts and their schools.

Finally, the proposed rule for class size overload in 10.55.712 has embedded more flexibility for local school board of trustees to determine how to address overload compared to the current requirement to staff mandatory instructional aides for specified hours.

Conceptual Changes within the Superintendent’s Recommendations

ARM 55, Subchapter 6, General Provisions

- Remodeling the Continuous School Improvement Plan to an Integrated Action Plan. The Integrated Action Plan integrates and aligns all plans (including the local board of trustees’ strategic plan) that a district and schools are required to complete and provides an opportunity for a district to strategically utilize local, state, and federal resources in a cohesive, unified manner that leads to continuous improvement and positively impacts student learning outcomes.

- The Integrated Action Plan contains a graduate profile, which is a collective vision that articulates the community’s aspirations for all students.

- Shifting from an input system to an outcome-based model because inputs provide helpful criteria and indicate critical success factors in instructional design and managing programs—but they don’t tell us what works and is effective based on outcomes.
• Emphasizing a proficiency-based learner model within the curriculum and assessment section.
• Encouraging multiple measures determined at the local level to assess student learning progression, growth, and proficiency.
• Redefining categories of accreditation from 5 to 3 categories: Accreditation with distinction, accreditation, and accreditation with probation. Raising the bar for accreditation to include a rating for exceeding expectations.
• Separated charter school application from variance to standards rule to make a new rule and updated the language to focus on student performance outcomes.
• Transferring internships to Chapter 57: Licensure, where it better fits with educator certificate requirements.
• Modernizing and aligning all definitions to align with recommend rule changes.

ARM 55, Subchapter 7, Leadership

• Elevating meaningful family and community engagement as a partnership between school communities and families based on best practices and principles that keep the focus on the learner and core beliefs about engagement.
• Recommending a new rule for mentorship and induction, while updating the model based on research models and best practices.
• Expanding the role of the principal to include personalized and proficiency-based learning, and strategic planning with community and family involvement to maximize student learning.
• Empowering local school districts to determine leadership staffing (principals and superintendents) per school and instructional program. Through local control districts can strategically assign leadership staff to programs while ensuring the needs of students are met.
• Adjusting the determination of staffing for licensed and endorsed library media and counseling program services to local district discretion. Districts are best suited to allocate staff appropriately to meet the needs of students through program services.
• Removing duplicate language that is embedded throughout the chapter and streamlining the local board of trustees’ policies and procedures to require school districts to comply with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations, while prioritizing policies for safety, student learning, and community engagement.
• Prioritizing instructional responsibilities of teachers and providing flexibility for local school districts to determine the resources needed when elementary classrooms are overloaded.
• Aligning professional development to the comprehensive district strategies that improve learner outcomes is vital to each student developing their full educational potential.
• Updating and aligning specialized programs (braille and sign language instruction) to Chapter 57 certification requirements.

ARM 55, Subchapter 8, Educational Opportunity

• Added an assessment component to school climate, to ensure that schools make improvements where necessary because there is a correlation between school climate and student outcomes.
• Updating learner access language to focus on what learners need that ensures learner safety, growth, wellbeing, and learning outcomes.
• Adding the need to appropriately assess and supply technology for each student
• Added a new rule for English Language Learners that aligns to existing federal requirements.

ARM 55, Subchapter 9, Academic Requirements
• Enhancing High School program offerings and graduation requirements to include Civics/Government and Economic or Financial Literacy. Both recommended changes would be within the existing required 20 credits not additional to. Flexibility has been built in to allow local school districts to determine if they would provide Economic or Financial Literacy within Social Studies, Mathematics, or CTE courses.
• Highlighting a proficiency-based model and existing flexibility for high school graduation units to be earned with an equivalent course that meets the district’s curriculum and assessment requirements.
• Expanding grade-level learning progressions to grade-band based on proficiency-based learning models.
• Including the constitutional mandate for IEFA within basic education programs requirements for Elementary, Middle, and High School.
• Adding state to federal accessibility standards for facilities.

ARM 55, Subchapter 10, Program Area Standards:
• Updating Program Area standards to current content standards. Ex. Communicating Arts Program to English Language Arts and Literacy, removing Vocational from Career and Vocational Technical Education, and retitling Health Enhancement to Health and Physical Education.
• Aligning the counseling program delivery standards to current national program standards.
