

The Office of Public Instruction Goals and Objectives

The Office of Public Instruction is focused on investments that increase opportunity and improve outcomes for all Montana students.

What	Unit	How
 1. Montana Hope A. Prioritize family and community involvement in education B. Accelerate student engagement C. Focus on bandwidth connection in elementary, middle school, and high school	Health and Safety Unit, Tribal Resiliency Unit, and Executive	Focus on enhancing and expanding the Student Voice Projects, Resilience in Something Else (RISE) tribal youth panel, and the Tribal Youth Advisory Councils. Utilize the Family Engagement Director to create family and community events and a parent portal.
	Teaching and Learning Unit	Continue implementation of MAST Pilot Program to create student ownership in learning. Continue to grow enrollment and graduation rates. Maintain high level of student participation in the Youth Risk Behavior Survey.
	ESSER	Utilize Broadband Specialist position. Continue partnership with Summit LLC.
 2. Montana Teach A. Grow flexibility and improve quality teachers B. Improve Professional Development opportunities to enhance personal growth C. Enhance the vision of teacher leadership	Executive and Educator Licensing Unit	Create additional professional development for teachers. Create a certification process for substitute teachers. Continued implementation and growth of TeachMontana (TMT).
	Teaching and Learning Unit	Continue to strengthen the Professional Development portal and courses for teachers.
	Executive and Educator Licensing Unit	Involve teacher leaders through the Teacher Leadership Academy and Teacher Residency Program. Promote professional development through TMT.
 3. Montana Learn A. Getting Back to Basics: Strengthening math, reading, and science education B. Create a meaningful assessment to acknowledge student growth in learning	Teaching and Learning Unit	Continue implementation of MAST Pilot Program. Open Math Content Standards. Begin Math Innovation Zones. Open Reading Content Standards.
	Assessment Unit	Continue implementation of MAST Pilot Program.

C. Graduation: building the graduate profile

Innovation and Improvement Unit Implement graduation requirements lined out in the Chapter 55 revisions.

A. Cultivate a skilled workforce

CTE Unit

Implement MT Ready initiatives using CTE resources and partnerships with apprenticeship programs in the classroom.

B. Provide opportunities for public-private partnerships

CTE Unit

Grow partnerships between OPI and private sector.

C. Promote post-secondary opportunities for all Montanans

CTE Unit

Continue growing partnerships with OCHE and the Board of Regents.