Transformational Learning Annual Reports
FY2023

Funded District	Summary of Funding Uses	Page #
Arlee Elementary	Design of personalized writing curriculum and professional development to support it	4
Arlee HS	100% of teachers completed the Learning Hub course "More than Making the Grade", Marzono PD book club participation	9
Belgrade Elementary	Flexible seating, standards-based learning professional development and supplies, professional learning communities, social/emotional curriculum	14
Belgrade HS	Prostart and construction courses, standards-based learning professional development, professional learning communities	17
Belt Elementary	Self-paced reading program for dyslexic students, professional development for teachers to use high-leverage reading strategies	41
Belt HS	Online, honors and AP courses	41
Bozeman Elementary	Bridger Charter School foreign language course evaluated on proficiency	51
Bozeman HS	Bridger Charter School proficiency-based courses	55
East Helena K-12	PD for standards-based grading at Radley Elementary, instructional coaching to move from traditional to transformative teaching practices, site visits of other schools implementing transformational learning practices, awarding of credits for off-site student experiences and learning, credit earning for accelerated students and at-risk students, MTDA courses	58
Eldergrove K-8	Building Bridges program to train staff in proficiency scales, purchase Chromebooks for 1-to-1 student-to-Chromebook ratio, Bridges math intervention program	81
Fairfield Elementary	Response to Intervention program, afterschool tutoring program, flexible scheduling, ALICE & safe schools training, grab & go breakfast, standards-based grading, community learning-based opportunities	96

Fairfield HS	Professional learning communities, afterschool program, distance learning, MTDA courses, Ingenuity for credit recovery, alternative diplomas, flexible scheduling of courses, ALICE & safe schools training, standards based, community learning-based opportunities	96
Fromberg K-12	Work-study courses for credit, online courses through MTDA, student-choice independent learning courses in Ag, music, art, and CSP.	111
Frontier Elementary	Student-driven play production performed for community	115
Helena Flats K-8	1-to-1 chromebooks to student ratio with replacement cycle, 3D printers with training, Spheros and other robotic curriculums, standards-based grading training and technical support	119
Joliet Elementary	APEX learning, Transformational Learning Committee with community stakeholder involvement to provide community learning opportunities, individualized K-5 math program, personalized ELA centers	125
Joliet HS	1-to-1 Chromebooks, virtual reality headsets for science department, digital arts technology, online monitoring devices, APEX learning to provide personalized courses of student interest, workstudy partnerships	125
Libby K-12	MTSS tier 3 intervention program, use of Branching Minds program to store and evaluate student intervention data, professional development for behavior and academic growth, Whole-Child Skill Development program administered to students grades K-12, 58 students enrolled in welding course working towards earning certification	154
Lockwood K-12	Professional development for flexible learning spaces, student-centered displays, focus on student-growth and student-choice learning options, board-approved student-led service-learning projects, personalized learning communities to meet the needs of each student, professional development on Building Bridges program for standards-based learning	158
Noxon HS	1-to-1 student-to-Chromebook ratio, student-choice advanced art courses, CTE self-paced courses	195
Plentywood K-12	Welding equipment, personalized music and equipment, MTDA courses, flexible seating equipment, FCS student-choice supplies, lab/computer supplies for individualized learning	208

Reed Point Elementary	Acceleration of student learning, curriculum enhanced with online perosnalized learning opportunities	221
Reed Point HS	Acceleration of student learning, certificate programs of students' choice, curriculum enhanced with online personalized learning opportunities	223
St. Regis K-12	Dual enrollment, MTDA, Flexible-Friday course offerings and instructional support, personalized scheduling for students, Xello program for personalized career interests and course offerings, computer gaming and design opportunities through University of Montana, Flash Lightening program for personalized PD and track transformational learning implementation	227