

The Office of Public Instruction Indian Education for All Unit has class sets of the following books available for borrowing for use in your classroom. To reserve these for up to three months, please e-mail Joan Franke indicating how many copies you need, when, and physical address to send to (sent via UPS). Your school will be responsible for return shipment costs.

American Indian Stories by Zitkala Sa
As Long as the Rivers Flow by Larry Loyie
Beaver Steals Fire by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes
The Birchbark House by Louise Erdrich
Code Talker by Joseph Bruchac
Counting Coup by Joseph Medicine Crow
Fools Crow by James Welch
The Gift of the Bitterroot as told by Johnny Arlee and Antoine Sandoval
The Good Luck Cat by Joy Harjo
Jingle Dancer by Cynthia Leitich Smith
Killing Custer by James Welch and Paul Stekler
The Little Duck Sikihsis by Beth Cuthand
The Moccasins by Earl Einarson
Red Parka Mary by Peter Eyvindson
Sweetgrass Basket by Marlene Carvell
Two Old Women by Velma Wallis
The War Shirt by Bently Spang
Where Did You Get Your Moccasins? By Bernelda Wheeler
Wind from an Enemy Sky by D'Arcy McNickle

For the following books, the OPI model lesson plan only requires one copy. There are five copies available for borrowing.

Bowwow Powwow by Brenda J. Child
Double! Not Half. by Rodney Gottula
Elk Morning Counts His First Coup by A.J. Otjen, Bessie Stopsatprettyplaces, and Sabrena Half
Elk Morning At the Battle of Arrow Creek as interpreted by A.J. Otjen and Sabrena Half
Powwow Summer by Marcie R. Rendon

Model lesson plans are available for these on the OPI Indian Education Website.

Please note the Requesting Curriculum button on the website is for requesting publications developed by the OPI IEFA Unit.

