

Who Are the Little Shell?

A curriculum guide for grades 6-8

created by Anna East and Chris La Tray

October 2023

Unit Overview

This unit provides an historical account of the “Landless Indians” from time immemorial to the present day. Using primary sources and supported by the Essential Understandings, the lessons are designed to incorporate classroom discussion, individual learning, and supported reading/viewing. Most lessons include primary sources and extension activities.

Contents

Anishinaabe - Lesson 1

Anishinaabe - Lesson 2

10-Cent Treaty - Lesson 1

10-Cent Treaty - Lesson 2

Chief Little Shell - Lesson 1

Chief Little Shell - Lesson 2

Who Are the Métis? - Lesson 1

Who Are the Métis? - Lesson 2

Who Are the Métis? - Lesson 3

Buffalo Economy and Red River Carts - Lesson 1

Buffalo Economy and Red River Carts - Lesson 2

Buffalo Economy and Red River Carts - Lesson 3

Métis Archipelago - Lesson 1

Métis Archipelago - Lesson 2

Landless Indians in the 20th Century - Lesson 1

Landless Indians in the 20th Century - Lesson 2

Federal Recognition - The Day that Finally Came - Lesson 1

Federal Recognition - The Day that Finally Came - Lesson 2

The Day That Finally Came Slideshow