Fast Facts

Curriculum Area: Social Studies
Grade Level: High School
Suggested Duration:

Stage 1 Desired Results

Established Goals

Social Studies Standard 2, Benchmark 6 (GLE 9-12:2.1) Analyze and evaluate conditions, actions, and motivations that contribute to conflict and cooperation within and among groups and nations, including tribal nations (e.g., discrimination, biases).

Social Studies Standard 2, Benchmark 6 (GLE 9-12:2.2) Identify the origination of stereotypes, and connect these to conflict/cooperation within and among groups and nations.

Social Studies Standard 6, Benchmark 5 (GLE 9-12:6.2) Analyze the conflicts resulting from cultural assimilation and cultural preservation among various ethnic and racial groups in Montana, including American Indians.

Social Studies Standard 1, Benchmark 2 (GLE 9-12:1.2) Apply criteria to evaluate information (e.g., origin, authority, accuracy, bias, and distortion of information and ideas).

Understandings

- Beliefs change, one person at a time; the process begins when the learner actively seeks to change his/her perceptions. Being aware of a discriminatory practice, bias, and/or stereotype is basic to changing your perception and point of view.
- Discrimination, stereotypes, and biases originate from misinformation, misperception, omission, and the distortion of information and ideas.
- Understanding the origin of discrimination, biases, and stereotypes is essential in your comprehension of what causes conflict, and the information you need to counter the specific bias.
- Discrimination, stereotyping, and biases end when people learn the origin of the misinformation/ distortion, and actively participate to prevent it from continuing.

Essential Questions

- What are some of the stereotypes and biases regarding American Indians in general?
- How have American Indians been discriminated against in past? Does this still occur? If so, what types of discrimination of currently occur?

Factors Causing Conflict and Cooperation Among Groups and Nations – High School

- What conflicts have resulted from cultural assimilation and cultural preservation?
- Have stereotypes and biases occurred among tribes? If so, which of these are still currently occurring?
- What types of information and idea distortion affect your world today (Indian mascots)?

Students will be able to...

- utilize classroom social skills and protocols as the class discusses misperceptions, acts of discrimination, stereotypes, and biases; the teacher should discuss the conduct expected before discussions begin, and remind students as needed about the hurtfulness that results from intended and unintended remarks made.
- define stereotypes, bias, discrimination, and tolerance and use correct information in discussions.
- state instances of conflicts, issues specifically linked to continued discrimination, stereotyping, and biases.
- apply criteria to evaluate the origin, authority, accuracy, bias, and distortion of information and ideas pertaining to mascots.

Stage 2 Assessment Evidence

Performance Tasks

1. Each student knows the criteria to evaluate information for origin, authority, accuracy, bias, and distortion of information and ideas, and can apply the criteria when evaluating nonfiction and fiction.
2. Each student will write an essay discussing the mascots and their impact on American society.

Stage 3 Learning Plan

Learning Activities

Complete lessons 6 and 7 from the Peace Corp Building Bridges curriculum. This should take one class period.

Complete the Mascots Discussion Model Curriculum. Refer to the Teaching Tolerance Web site for additional materials. This should take two-three class periods.

Have students write a final essay about the mascot issue.
