

Kerri Cissna, Ed.D.

Visiting Assistant Professor (VAP)

Department of Entrepreneurship and the John W. Altman Institute for Entrepreneurship

Miami University's Farmer School of Business.

Dr. Kerri Cissna serves as Visiting Assistant Professor (VAP) in Entrepreneurship and Creativity in the Department of Entrepreneurship at Miami University's Farmer School of Business. She earned her BS at Warner Pacific University in Portland, Oregon and then earned a Master of Education in College Student Affairs from Azusa Pacific University in Azusa, California. She earned her Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership and her Ph.D. in Global Leadership and Change from Pepperdine University. She has published articles in several refereed journals, including the Journal of Leadership Education and the Journal of Global Leadership. She has four published books on #WomeninLeadership and #WorkLifeIntegration. At Wake Forest University, Kerri was a Teacher-Scholar Postdoctoral Fellow in the Program for Leadership and Character and the Center for Entrepreneurship. Kerri has taught courses at the undergraduate and graduate level at Pepperdine University, California State University and Southern Nazarene University. Her career in higher education spans two decades and includes Assistant Vice Chancellor in the Graduate School of Education and Psychology, Director of Housing & Residence Life, and Leadership Development Coordinator at Pepperdine University. Kerri formerly served as the Executive Director for Leadership Long Beach, and is the founder of Inspired Life Coaching and Consulting.

