All About the 2021 Junior Membership Classroom Grant Award Program

Purpose: Why Classroom Grants?

- Since its inception, the Helen Pouch Memorial Fund has traditionally supported the DAR's mission of Education. The history of the fund has shown a desire by Juniors to help as many students as possible.
- Supporting classrooms in each state allows for states and Juniors to see the impact of our fundraising, no matter their proximity to a DAR supported school.
- Two grants are available for each state and the District of Columbia.
- Applicants must be a classroom teacher for grades kindergarten through 12th grade.
- Must be sponsored by a local DAR chapter and complete the grant award application.
- Proposed projects must directly benefit students in the classroom. Funds may be used for supplies and educational resources but the applicant must detail how these items help to further the educational goals of the DAR. Grants must directly impact students and may not be used for continuing education/workshops for the teacher.

Program Administration: How do teachers apply for the grant? How does a state determine their winner?

- Application period will begin February 15, 2021. APRIL 1, 2021
- Once the application period has ended (~~May 1, 2021~~), the chapter will submit their applicant to the State Chair. At the state level, a panel of three judges will review the applications for their state and determine a Winner and Runner-Up.
- The panel of judges will consist of the State Junior Membership Chair, a Junior Member, and a DAR member who is an educator.
 - The DAR member who is an educator may also be a Junior member.
 - The educator does not have to be a current teacher; she may be retired or currently working in a different field.
- The State Chair will submit her state's Winner and Runner-Up to the National Vice Chair of Junior Membership Classroom Grants by the designated date.
- The National Vice Chair will certify each state's winner(s).
- Should a state not submit a grant award Winner (or Runner-Up), the National Chair or Vice Chair may award that state's grant(s) to another state. No more than three grants will be issued to one state. Preference will be given to states within the same division as a state not submitting a grant award Winner/Runner-Up.
- Grant Award Winners will be announced at Continental Congress.
- Awards will be distributed in August.
- The grant is a one-time award, and recipients are not eligible to re-apply in future years.

How does this program affect the Helen Pouch Memorial Fund National Project?

It doesn't! After our commitment to the DAR Schools, the Junior Membership Committee fulfills our obligation to the adopted National Project for that year prior to accepting grant award applications.

Should a state or chapter do anything to recognize Classroom Grant winners?

Of course! Consider making a ceremonial check presentation to the winners at your state's fall meeting or holding a special ceremony at the recipients' classrooms or at a meeting of the sponsoring DAR chapters. You could also recognize your winners during your State Conference in the spring and allow the teachers to speak about the impact the grant has had on their classroom. Write an article about the project for your state's newsletters. Submit details to the National Junior Membership newsletter, The Beacon.

Who is considered a classroom teacher?

A classroom teacher is a teacher in a public or private school system. They can teach a core subject or other group setting classes in grades K-12. Individual programs like speech or occupational therapy are not eligible. The teacher holds a contract for the following school year and can have the application endorsed by a principal, headmaster, or superintendent to verify employment. Home school teachers are not considered classroom teachers. The goal of the classroom grant program is to do the greatest good for the great number of students.

Can a non-regular education teacher apply if they meet the definition of a classroom teacher?

Special education services vary from state to state and it must be clear that the teacher is teaching a classroom of students and not providing pull out service.

- An example of a classroom would be: A reading class is being taught to a group of students by the special education teacher.
- An example of pull-out service (not eligible) would be: a special education teacher working with students on reading for a class that is being taught by another teacher.

Can a classroom grant be used by the school lunch program?

No, grant funds must be used for education setting activities in a classroom.

Can a classroom grant be used by a classroom teacher to invite a guest expert performer/lecturer to come and teach classes in a classroom as a way to extending the learning experience of students?

Yes, this fits the definition of the focus on student learning of the grant program. This activity has a direct benefit to the students' learning.

Can a classroom grant be used by a classroom teacher to take students on an out of school field trip to cover the cost of entry of students to a learning venue?

Yes, this is an activity that is focused on education to help expand the classroom learning experience. This activity has a direct benefit to the students' learning.

Can a classroom grant be used by a classroom teacher to develop/deliver online curriculum?

Yes, virtual learning (as authorized by the respective school district) is an accepted method of bringing the teacher to the virtual classroom. This activity has a direct benefit to the students' learning.

Can a DAR member apply for a grant?

Yes! DAR members who meet the eligibility requirements of classroom teachers may apply for the grant. They should not list their DAR membership as part of their application, as no preference should be given to DAR members when reviewing the applications and grants should be awarded based on the merits of the application alone.

Can my chapter endorse more than one applicant?

No, a chapter may only endorse one application per year. The goal of this grant program is to impact as many children in as many communities as possible. Limiting each chapter to sponsoring just one application per year helps ensure that multiple communities in each state will benefit from these grants. In addition, due to the large number of chapters in some states, and the limited time available to the state judges, limits must be placed to ensure these judges aren't overwhelmed with applications.
