

Montana Newspaper Foundation 2023 MNF Journalism Scholarship

Application Form

Deadline: April 15, 2023

Eligible applicants must be residents of Montana who are graduating from an accredited high school in the spring of 2023. They must plan to enroll in a journalism (print, broadcast, multimedia) or journalism-related field of study at an accredited college, university or vocational-technical school. Journalism-related fields would include, but are not limited to, graphic design, photography/visual arts, sales/marketing, business administration, English, communications and public relations. Preference will be given to applicants who plan to attend Montana post-secondary institutions.

This $1,000 scholarship will be paid directly to the successful applicant's post-secondary institution.

Applicant Information

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone number:

High school attended:

Graduation date:

Cumulative grade-point average:

Post-secondary institution you plan to attend:

Address of post-secondary institution:

Major you have selected:

1. Tell us about your high school journalism endeavors, including classes taken and school newspapers, social media pages, websites, blogs, etc., on which you have worked, including any awards you have received:

2. Tell us why you want to major in journalism or a journalism-related field:

3. Tell us what your career goals, after completing your degree, are:

4. Describe your financial need:

Return completed application to:

MNF President Melody Martinsen

P.O. Box 320

Choteau, MT 59422

email: acantha@3rivers.net

406-466-2403 (office)

406-590-1644 (cell)

Please request confirmation from Martinsen (via text, email or phone call) that she has received your scholarship application.