Meeting Summary

November 8, 2023

- I. Overview with Dr. Murgel of important upcoming calendar events
 - a. Sessions on the new accreditation format are available
 - b. 11/10 Final Expenditure Reports are due
 - c. MAST listening and feedback sessions:
 - i. Live Listening/Feedback Session
We have designed user feedback cycles throughout the school year to ensure continuous improvement of the MAST. These sessions will serve as an opportunity for users like you to share feedback, suggestions, and experiences to help us enhance the usability of the MAST. We value your input and encourage you to participate in these live listening/feedback sessions. The first live listening/feedback session is scheduled for November 14th from 3:30-4:30 pm.  - d. Internship Applications from EPPS and Districts due 11/15 in TeachMT system
 - i. The Office of Public Instruction is now accepting Internship applications for the 2023-24 school year. Please review ARM 10.55.602(22) that states the internship is an agreement with a fully licensed Class 1, 2, or 3 educator. Click the link for an overview of the TeachMT Internship applications process. Questions? Please contact cert@mt.gov or call 406-444-3150.
 - e. Lot of Special Education PD and sessions
 - f. Lots of due dates coming up- here's the link to the calendar
 - g. School Accreditation link- so many PD sessions, and recordings and slide decks are available. Also have weekly office hours every Tuesday from 3:00-4:00 pm
 - h. Negotiated Rulemaking for World Languages and Math Content Standards next week!
- II. Questions?
 - a. Who do you suggest goes to the "Graduate Profile" for the accreditation presentations, for example? Large districts may have multiple people attend the session. We would recommend sending a representative from elementary, middle, and high school, from a variety of stakeholder perspectives. No limit on attendees: Sign up for the session:
Passcode: 240757
 - b. Graduate Profile is a new requirement for accreditation this year.
 - c. IEFA Reporting in the new accreditation system and TFS for next year. Questions on this year's IEFA Funding? Read the Frequently Asked Questions.
