

Summer EBT

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Summer EBT?

A program that begins in 2024 and gives families with eligible children an EBT card to purchase food when schools are closed during summer vacation*. Students can utilize both the Summer EBT program and summer meals programs.

*In this first year of the program, benefits will be issued after the summer.

Is My Household Eligible for S-EBT?

Your household is eligible if your child is certified to receive free or reduced-price school meals via a free and reduced-price meal application or through direct certification. If your student attends a Community Eligibility Provision School and is not directly certified, please apply through a free or reduced-price meal application.

How Much Money Will I Receive?

Eligible students will receive $120 each (this amount will be adjusted annually, dependent on inflation).
