

Examples of Measurable Postsecondary Goals

Education

- Chris will attend a two-year junior college to get his degree in nursing.
- Three months after graduating, Lucy will enroll in the college of her choice to get her art degree.
- One year after graduating from high school, Jamie will register at beauty school.
- One year after graduating, Hunter will enroll in a program to become a mortician.

Employment

- After graduation, Dylan will get a job at the movie theater.
- Six months after graduation Carlos will hit the road as an inspirational speaker.
- After graduation with the help of Vocational Rehabilitation, Sara will start her own business building houses.
- Jillian will get a job in a candy store three months after graduating from high school.
- Directly after graduation high school, Derek will work on his family's farm.

Training

- After graduation, Heaven will enter a training program to become a Certified Nurse's Assistant.
- Hilde will become an electrician's apprentice to obtain her certification after graduating high school.
- After graduation, Erik will join the military to train as a helicopter mechanic.
- After graduating from high school, Odin will enroll in a cooking class to learn how to prepare healthy meals.
- Craig will take money management classes after graduating from high school so he can manage his money to live independently.

Independent Living Skills

- After high school Braden will go to college and live on his own.
- One year after high school, Marla will work and save money to get her own apartment.
- After high school, Chris will live at home with his parents.
- Three months after high school, Brady will join a safe social group and make new friends.