WHAT'S NEW? NEW COURSE OFFERINGS

Rocky Mountain College (RMC) is planning for an additional education minor for Business Education. RMC is also planning for a Masters of Art in Teaching for those who want to complete an education masters while utilizing their previous bachelors degree.

PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT

- Featuring content instructors who are passionate and experts in their field.
- Small class sizes enable strong relationships with classmates and instructors.
- Participate in practicum experiences each year after your freshman year. The sophomore experience is at a school, providing you with 35 hours of learning from the playground, to the office, and to the classroom, plus an opportunity to shadow a student for one full day.
- Current research in education is studied and practiced – from proficiency scales to DuFour, Stiggins, Hattie and Marzano work.
- Learn appropriate technology integration.
- Graduate with a Level 1 Google Certification on your resume.
- Build an education website, the beginning of a portfolio, your freshman year, which will showcase your four years of learning.

STUDENT QUOTE

"Rocky Mountain College is a great place to get your education degree. The faculty cares about students! Small classes provide support and encouragement."
